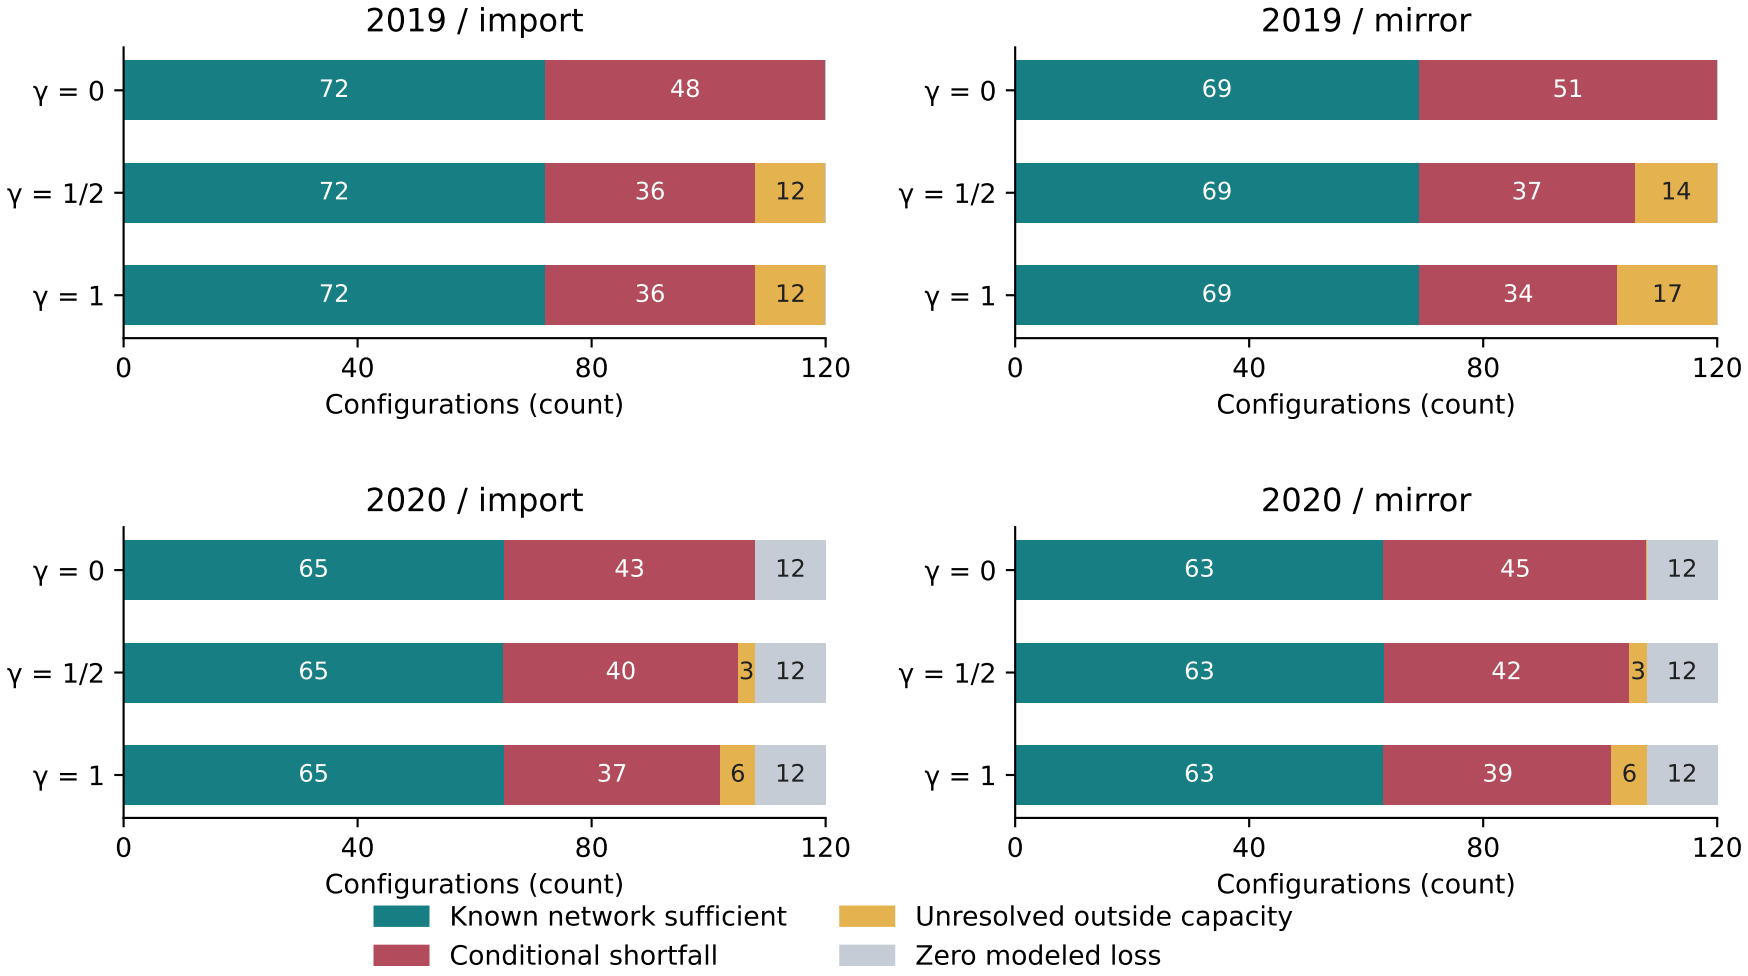
Outside-capacity assumptions change the decision class

Each panel retains all 120 base configurations; repeated parameter settings are not independent observations.



γ scales an authored outside-route envelope from the accounting residual; it is not observed supply or a probability.